

Native Trees

A non-native species like ginkgo hosts five caterpillar species — a native oak hosts 500+ species! Caterpillars are a vital food source for baby birds!

“Adopt” a tree species that is native to Ohio and research all the resources the native tree provides for nesting birds. Draw a picture of the tree’s leaf, seed and bud. List 5 resources the tree provides for birds.

Tree species:

Resources:
